Miss Grace Isabel Ashwell Bride of Dr. Edward H. Raymond, Jr.

FULL

Other Weddings of Yesterday in

This City and Elsewhere.

The wedding of Miss Grace Isabel Ashnell, daughter of Mrs. W. C. Ashwell of Plainfield, N. J., to Dr. Edward H. Raymodd, Jr., of this city took place in the church of the Heavenly Rest at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the Rey, Herbert church of the Heavenly Rest at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the Rev. Herbert Shipman, rector of the church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Albert Monck, assisted by the Rev. Albert Monck, assisted by the Rev. Albert Monck, assisted the traction. There was a full choral service, the vested choir preceding the bridal party to the chancel, which was decarated with palms and Ascension lilies. The bride entered the church with arrive at the Thomas Ashwell, who gave her away. Her gown was of white satin, with a long court train. She wore a veil of old joint lace held by a wreath of orange blessoms and carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Madeleine Ashwell, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids her the Misses Mary Raymond, sister of the bridegroom; Heien V. Sherman and Imily Hoyt. They were costumes of pale jank satin and shadow lace finished with a girdle and sash of orange velvet ribbon. They were white lace held with a girdle and sash of orange velvet ribbon. When a stripment with the property of the bridegroom; Heien V. Sherman and Imily Hoyt. They were costumes of pale jank satin and shadow lace finished with a girdle and sash of orange velvet ribbon. The were white lace has tripmed with a girdle and sash of orange velvet ribbon. mk satin and shadow lace finished with a girdle and sash of orange velvet ribbon. They were white lace hats trimmed with tale pink tuile and clusters of pink roses, but and carried bouquets of pink roses. Dr. Edward Colle was best man. The ishers were Dr. John W. Dickinson, Dr. Hilton Cornell, Dr. Irving Cornell, William B. Symes, Jr., and Clarence Hellen of his city and E. Akhurst of Oxford, Engand. After the ceremony there was a recep-tion in the bailroom of the Hotel Gotham.

WAGNER-WILMOT.

for Paintings.

PHILADELPHIA, June 26 .- Fred Wagner, the Fine Arts as a sample of Wagner's Grace Bristed, 6-3, 6work. They will spend the summer at Island Heights, N. J.

he late Alexander P. Whitehead, was New York.

Notes of the Newark discose Policoving the ceremony a nupital composition was celebrated by the Rev. Glibriet M. Foxwell, rector of Grace Episcopial Church, Union, N. J. The bride was attended by Miss Augusta M. Zetto of Lorsey City. The Rev. Henri B. B. Lebers of the Church of St. Mary the Virgin. New York, was best man. The latest was a best man. The latest was a best man. The latest was a best man. The latest was greated by the Rev. Frank H. Hallock of Newark.

Barnaby—Duans.

The wedding of Miss Lillian Delaney Duan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Duan of Newarks, and Kenneth Tuttle Barnaby of Newarks and Newark, vesterday afternoon. Miss May ferform, a selection of New York was the only attendant, and ther brother, James C. Duan, sister of the bride, was the only attendant, and ther brother, James C. Duan, and ther brother, James C. Duan, maked and the regions of the Social World.

Notes of the Social World.

Mrs. W K. Vanderbilt, Jr. sailed for the picture of Augusta M. Zetto of Europe on the Imperator on the Indead Tour in a Place of Augusta, Me, en route to Lenox, and street of Lenox, and wife of South Oranae, N. J. Mrs. Adolph Ladenburg and her daughter, Mrs. J. Hell of Brocklyn on the Ideal Tour in a Place of Augusta, Me, en route to Lenox, and wife of South Oranae, N. J. Mrs. Place and her daughter, Mrs. J. Reversely of the Window and defield Mrs. And Mrs. J. A. Young, W. H. Pall of Brocklyn on the Ideal Tour in a Lozier: Mrs. J. Mrs. J. Lee Tailer have sone to their Mrs. J. Mrs. J. Lee Tailer and her daughter, Mrs. Bidward S. World and the Parisal Salbra, Mrs. And wife and Sauch of Sauch of Augusta, Mrs. And the Parisal Salbra, Mrs. And the Parisal Salbra, Mrs. And wife and Sauch tendant, and her brother, James C. Dunn. was best man. The ushers were William John Kerr, George Nexander Nimick, Carl Baer, Shelby Shakleon and George Mills. After the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the tride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Barnaby left for the White Mountains

Sprigg-Kappes.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles and, vesterday, Miss Gladys Kappes, eir only daughter, was married to chard McLeod Sprigg of New Brighton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Barnhill, pastor of the First an Church, Stapleton, Miss resbyterian Church, Stapleton. lane Fauls of Clifton was the maid of Crawford Sprigg, brother of the was best man. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served.

Low-Rudinger.

In the ballroom of the Hotel St. Regis " night was celebrated the wedding of Edith Irene Rudinger, daughter Rudinger, and Eugene Low of city, the Rev. Dr. Grossman ing. The bride had Miss Irene cating. The bride had Miss irene riger as her maid of honor. The other endants were the Misses Lillian Rudinger. Freda Schlessinger.

1 Freda Schlessinger.

1 Freda Schlessinger.

2 Baldwin Mrs. Leonard Mr. and Mrs. James P. Pratt Mrs. M. A. Burr Mrs. James P. Pratt Jodds Mrs. Charles W. Dodds Mrs. Charles W. Dowal Mrs. Admir. Priman Mrs. And Mrs. Prederick De Witt

Lorentzen-Johnston.

wedding of Christian S. Lorentzen d Miss Charlotte R. Johnston, a teacher public schools of New York, took last night at the home of the bride's is a graduate of Beloit College of the New York Law School, and eremony was performed by his col-lassmate, the Rev. Von Ogden Vogt. of the First Congregational Church gone on a wedding trip to the grea

MRS, EBEN WRIGHT TO WED.

Her Engagement to Count Emilio del Serra of Rome Announced.

of interest to society here is the ancouncement of the engagement, made of Home, Italy. Mrs. Wright is the mother ment to Grafton H. Pyne of New York was made known several days ago.

Mrs. Wright closed her New York home

Mrs. Wright closed her New York home at 10 West Fifty-third street in April and sailed for Europe with her daughters, the Misses Leta and Anna Wright.

Miss Wright's wedding to Mr. Pyne will take place on July 3 at the home of John Wright, an uncle of the bride, near Maidenhead on the Thames, England. The ceremony will be witnessed by several relatives from New York.

The wedding of Mrs. Wright and Count del Serra, who is a brother of Baroness Trojani of Rome, will take place probably later in the summer.

SOCIETY AT NEWPORT.

CHORAL SERVICE Norwegian Dancer Engaged to Teach Women and Children.

NEWPORT, R. I., June 26 .- Pantomime and classic dances for the women of the summer colony and fairy dances for their children are being taught in the drawing rooms of the villas during the summer. Miss Inga Sontum of Norway was obtained as instructor. She will give also exhibitions of her dancing at

Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Satterlee Motor to White Mountains

LENOX, Mass., June 26. - After a visit with Mrs. Morris K. Jesup at Belvoir Ter-race since Saturday, Mrs. J. Pierpont Mor-Philadelphia Artist Weds His Model gan and Mrs. Herbert L. Satteries started to-day by automobile for the White Mountains

In the morning play at the Lenox Golf PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—Fred Wagner, 50 years old, an artist, a regular exhibitor in many salons in this country and a member of several clubs, was married today to Miss Eva Wilmot of Germantown, his model for many paintings.

Mrs. Wagner was the model for the portrait "Lady With Cup of Tea" shown at the last exhibition of the Academy of the Eine Arts as a sample of Wagner's Grace Eristed 8-3 8-3.

Mr. and Mrs. David Turner Dans motored back to Lenox to-day from Wellesley, where they had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Baty Blake. Mr. and Mrs. Henry O. Tail-Miss Cecelie Whitehead, daughter of R. Jesup at the Curtis Hotel, have gone to

Mr. and Mrs. Lindon W. Bates have this city in St. Michael's Episcopal plans for a new villa at their estate on the cereity was performed by the Rev. Dr. tract for installing a water system which nony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Telers, rector of the church.

The bride entered the church with Justice James A. Blanchard, a friend of the family, who gave her away. She wore a gown of white satin trimmed with duchess at 5.000 dam.

Miss Susan C. Woodford of New York is a guest of Mrs. George H. Southard, Jr., on the Pittsfield road. Mr and Mrs. Rodman Calder are visiting Mrs. Richard Watson Giller are visiting Mrs. Rodman dearn at the Pittsfield road. In watson Giller are visiting Mrs. Rodman dearn at the Honder of the Country Ryman has gone George Highlian has gone Giller are visiting Mrs. Rodman has gone dearn the following Mr

Macdonald at the Vanderbilt. Mrs. P. A. Valentine has gone to Southampton, L. I., for the summer.

Some of Those Who Will Sail Today for Europe.

Passengers by the American liner St

New Jardin de Dance Opens.

The new Jardin de Dance on top of the New York Theatre was opened last night. What was formerly the roof garden has been turned into a large ballroom. There are a restaurant and a cabaret. An orchestra from the Hotel Rector plays. The place is under the management of William Morris and Carter De Haven. The usual Morris anl Carter De Haven. The usual first nighters at the theatre were at the opening last night. Nearly all the well known people of the stage who are in Plays and Players. The incidental music for "Evangeline."

The incidental music for "Evangeline," day by the North German Lloyd liner which Arthur Hopkins will produce at the Prinzess Irene with five of her pupils. Park Theatre on September 29, will be all on summer vacation. They are the written by William Furst.

Kenneth Hill, who played the part of Van Dyke. Eveleth Derby and Charlotte English Eddie Griggs in "Within the Baker.

Law," has arrived from abroad and will Prof. Fidardo Landi, a sculptor of return to the cast on Monday. (Carrara, also arrived by the Prinzess Irene.

which no title has yet been selected.

Miss Leta C. Wright, whose engage will be given early in the season.

Michael Count Emilio del Serra to Miss Leta C. Wright, whose engage will be given early in the season.

Larran and Aldermen to the cast on Monay.

He gave up his studio at Carrara to Illinois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to Illinois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to Illinois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to Illinois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to Illinois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to Illinois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to to the suffrage name to the gave up his studio at Carrara to linois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to lininois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to lininois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to lininois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to lininois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to lininois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to lininois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to lininois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to lininois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to lininois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to lininois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to lininois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to lininois: Lieut.-Gov. O'Hara, Speaker Willname to the gave up his studio at Carrara to Leta C. Wright, whose engage. will be given early in the season.

The Jackals of Finance.

TOM FOLEY MAKES 3,000 CHILDREN GLAD

Toy Safes and Buffalo Nickels Set Young Hearts Beating in Oliver Street.

The streets of the lower East Side, which are the playgrounds of that section of New York, have seen a lot of likely praised for its beauty when exhibited in the Paris Salon, but the picture did not really impulsive withings and the section of New York have seen a lot of likely praised for its beauty when exhibited in the Paris Salon, but the picture did not really impulsive withings and the section of the lower East Side, which are the picture did not really impulsive withings. ideal tion of New York, have seen a lot of and Miss Elizabeth Thacher of California, alleys known to the pub en route to Grove Hall, Conn.

LENOX. Mass., June 26.—Motor arrivals

The gried they length alleys known to the public as Cherry.

They cried, they laughed, they sang,

Southampton, L. I., for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thaw 3d of Lakewood are at the Plaza for a brief visit.

Among the passengers returning to New York on the Olympic are Mrs. Julian W. Robbins and her daughter, Miss Julia Robbins, who was presented at court re-Robbins and her daughter, Miss Julia Robbins, who was presented at court recently. Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge T. Gerry and the Misses Gerry are returning from Europe on the Kronprinzessin Cecitie.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Rives are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Childs and Springs in a Pierce: W. H. Wright, Mrs. Mrs. Beecher and Miss Taylor touring the Berkshires in a Packard: Miss L. G. Neville, touring the Berkshires in a Packard: Miss L. G. Neville, touring the Berkshires in a Locomobile: Mr. and Mrs. George T. Brown on the Ideal Tour in a Lozier: Mr. and Mrs. The first of the series of musical mornings arranged to be given at several of the summer places along the Jersey coast by Mrs. R. W. Hawkesworth will take place to-day at the house of W. S. P. Prentice at Monmouth Beach.

THE SEAGOERS.

Ideal Tour in an Alco: Mr. and Mrs. J. G. St. James's Rectory, next door to Speaker Smith's house. Across the Street Mrs. Smith's house. Street M street Mrs. Smith sat on a stoop watch- morial Commission.

smiled approvingly, and in the end the little children went home very happy, very tired and very dirty, singing "There only one in a million like you, Tom than seventy monuments. included the following:

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jenkins, V. G. Jenkins and W. Lewis of New York in a Packard:
Mr. and Mrs. George Nichol of Brooklyn in a Pierce: Mrs. F. S. Jones of Brooklyn Mrs. W. J. Dykes of Litchfleld and Mrs. A. L. Clemens of Montclair in a Pierce: Mr. and Mrs. Vernon C. Brown and Miss E. B. Brundige of New York in a Renault; Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Ketham of Forest Parkway, Mrs. K. A. Ketcham of Hollis, L. I. and Mrs. S. A. Ely of New York in a Cadiliac; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Scott of Toronto in a Simplex, Miss M. R. Tooker, Miss G. Tooker and Miss A. Tooker of Fast Orange in a Pierce: Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barrett of St. Albans, Vt., in a Maxwell, Mrs. Warren Delano of New York and Mrs. Fred D. Hitch of Newburgh in a Packard; Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Arnold of Albany in a Packard; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barney and Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. W. H. Barney and Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Jacobs of Provdence in a Lozier.

and Miss Irene Doolittle, touring

MANCHESTER, Vt., June 28.—Arrivals by automobile to-day at the Equinox House included the following:

Mr. and Mrs W E. Jenkins, V. G. Jen-

SCHOOLGIRLS FROM FLORENCE.

Miss Sheldon Brings Party of Five

for Vacation Here.

American girls in Florence, arrived yester-

Misses Ruth Taft, Jean Wheeler, Elinor

Miss G. Sheldon, who has a school for Berkshires in a Packard.

SUFFRAGETTES INVADE CONEY. Parade as Sandwich Women Throug Surf Avenue.

Even Coney Island was startled yes erday when a suffrage sandwich parade, headed by Miss Mabel Schofield ringing dinner bell, invaded Surf avenue Miss Schofield was one of Mrs. Pank-nurst's assistants and was prepared for rouble, but none came.

The parade, which included Miss Lillian Walker, Miss Margaret McLauchlan and Mrs. Besant, returned through the residential part of the island. The sandat Seaside Park Saturday afternoon.

ILLINOIS WOMEN TO VOTE NOW. Gov. Dunne's Signing of Suffrage

Bill Qualifies 1,600,000. SPRINGPIELD, Ill., June 26.-By signing the equal suffrage bill to-day Gov. Dunne enfranchised 1,800,000 women, more than doubling the number of women previously entitled to vote in the United States. Senator H. S. Magill, father of the bill

CHABAS'S PICTURE APPROVED. September Morn" In Not Under the

Postal Ban. WASHINGTON, June 26 - Uncle Sam offi-cially decided to-day that "September Morn" isn't naughty.

Judge William R. Lamar, Assistant Attorney-General for the Post Office Department, held that Paul Chabas's painting terviews. So did Mr. Comstock, and when in a short time every copy of the New Yorker Named as Architect of the Lincoln Memorial.

WASHINGTON, June 26 .- Secretary War Garrison announced to-day that Henry Bacon of New York has been ac cepted as the architect for the Linco Memorial to be erected on the Mall

Mr. Bacon is 47 years old. He studied at the University of Illinois for a year and then became a draughtsman in the office of Chamberlin & Whidden, archi-tects in Boston. Three years later he entered McKim, Mead & White's office. 1903 he has been in business for He has collaborated in SHALL MOVIES BE UPLIFTED? Question That Is to Come Before the Convention in July.

Whether the "eternal triangle" and plays that treat of divorce shall be retained or thrown out by the producers of moving picture films may cause some dis-sension at the third annual convention of the Motion Picture Exhibitors League of America in the Grand Central Palace be-ginning on July 7. One faction wants the pictures thrown out entirely and the holds that the pictures teach a

"The newspaper is the fourth estate,"
"The newspaper is the fourth estate," said Frank A. Tichenor, chairman of the executive committee, "but the moving pictures have become the fifth estate." The daily attendance at moving picture shows in the United States now averages 10.000, 000, and that means that a message may be brought home quicker than by any Gov. Sulzer, District Attorney Whitman and Gov. Cox of Ohio have been invited to attend the convention and make ad-Saturday Half Holidays for 30,000 About 30,000 per diem employees of the city will get Saturday half holidays with pay during July and August. An ordi-nance to this effect was passed by the Aldermen and signed by the Mayor some

IS DEAD IN LONDON

Largest Land Owner in Europe With Exception Only

A STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE

of Czar.

NEVER A SOCIETY MAN

Lover of Outdoor Life and One of Most Popular British Landlords.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SEX LONDON, June 26 .- The Duke of Sutherland, who has been critically ill for several days, died to-night.

Cromartie Sutherland-Leverson-Gower the fourth Duke of Sutherland, owned more land in Great Britain than any other of his King's subjects, his total holdings aggregating 1,358,600 acres. He had title to about one-sixteenth of Scotland. besides vast estates in Staffordshire and Shropshire. It was possible for him to walk from Dunrobin Castle, his seat in Sutherland, fifty miles straight ahead

He was the largest landowner in Europe except the Czar. He recently fires with its tugs sold 50,000 acres of the Sutherland estates to J. W. Stewart, tates to J. W. Stewart.

The Duke of Sutherland was known to many in America. In the summer of 1912 he visited the United States and Canada accompanied by the Duchess of Sutherland and their son and daughter. Lord Alastair St. Clair and Lady Rosemary Leveson. While here he gave to the New York Yacht Club the old eagle stern piece that adorned the yacht America, which won the first international yacht race. The Duke stopped at the Ritz-Carlton for several days after a long trip through the Canadian West and Northwest before returning home.

His mission here was to interest American capitalists in a scheme for the colo-

His mission here was to interest American capitalists in a scheme for the colonization of western Canada with English and American settlers.

He had previously made several trips to this country and Canada.

The Duke was born on July 20, 1851.

He was Lieutenant-Colonel of the Sutherland Rifles (1882-1891); a Member of Parliament from Sutherland (1874-1886).

Lord Lieutenant of Sutherland (1874-1886).

Lord Lieutenant of Sutherland (1892).

and Mayor of Longton (1895-1896).

He cared nothing about society and disliked all kinds of ceremonials. He was fond of sport and country life and his duties as a great landlord kept him busy and were much to his taste.

Before coming into his title he introduced in the House of Commonial crofter's bill of such a radical character that his before coming into his title he intro-duced in the House of Commons/a crofter's bill of such a radical character that his friends were startled. When he came into his estates he at once grew popular as a landlord by placing stretches of land at the disposal of his tenants. The Duke of Sutherland, then Marquis of Stafford, was married in 1884 to Lady Millicent Fanny St. Clair Erskine, awoman of much beauty and brilliance. She later became known as the most demo-cratic Duchess in the kingdom. The Duchess was always deeply interested in social questions and has done much to promote the crofter industry. Like her husband, she too disliked social func-tions. Her literary achievements are well known.

tions. Her literary achievements are well known.

The Duke's homes were Stafford house, St. James's, S. W., Tittensor Chase, Stoke on Trent, Lilleshall House, Newport, Shropshire; Dunrobin Castle, Golspie, and House of Tongue, Sutherland.

He belonged to the Brooks, Marlborough, Travellers, Turf, Royal Yacht Squadron, Cowes and Royal Automobile clubs.

clubs.

The heir to the dukedom is his son wasn't obscene and that the reproduction George Granville, born in 1888. The Noted Scene Painter Dies Suddenly in New Mexico.

Walter W. Burridge, one of the nost scene painters of his time, died or Wednesday in a hotel in Albuquerque.
N. M. Death was caused by acute indigestion. He had just arrived in the New from the Grand Canyon Mexico town where he had been painting pictures for two months. Mr. Burridge was born in Brooklyn fifty-six years ago. In 1903 he executed at the Academy of Music $200,000 worth of scenery, including eighty complete sets and more than 300 hanging pieces work was done for Henry W. Sava the scenery was used by the Castle Square Opera Company. At various times Mr. Burridge was associated with many prominent actors, including Otis Skinner. Julia Arthur and Margaret Mather. His father was Henry Burridge, prietor of the old Masons' Arms In Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn. As a boy Wal-ter Burridge sang in St. Ann's Church, the Church of the Redeemer and St. John's Memorial to be erected on the Mail in Potomac Park here by the Lincoln Memorial Commission.

Mr. Bacon's design was accepted by the Lincoln Memorial Commission on April 16, 1912. Congress had authorized an appropriation of $2,000,000 for the memorial.

The design consists of a rectangular building with a colonnade of Doric columns forty feet high. Inside will be a heroic statue of Lincoln, while the walls will have in large letters his Gettysburg speech and his second inaugural address.

Mr. Bacon is 47 years old. He studied Church, where he was the soloist. When he was 13 years old he was apprenticed to Harley Merry, then one of the best known scenic artists. Most of his work was done in the West. More than thirty-five years ago he painted many cycloramas. For the Philadelphia centennial he painted "The Siege of Paris" and he supervised the reproduction of "The But-rided work for Klaw & Erlanger, for whom he recently painted the scenery for "The Taril of the Lonesome Pine."

Mr. Burridge had been in the Grand Canyon in connection with some work he Church, where he was the soloist. Canyon in connection with some work he was to do for the Panama exposition

His wife accompanied him on the trip and was with him when he died. Charles L. Railey, known as a breede of saddle horses, died on Wednesday of pneumonia at the home of his caughter. 24 East Forty-ninth street. He was here on his semi-annual trip from Kentuck on his semi-annual trip from Kentucky with horses. His visits to the city had been made regularly since the civil war. He was largely responsible for the popularity of Kentucky horses in the East Mr. Railey was born in Versailles, Ky. His ancestors went there from Virginia under the name of Raleigh. He leaves 1904 Mr. Railey was sole judge of saddle horses at the world's fair in St I and acted for some years in the capacity at the Kentucky State fair. owned and rode the first saddle horse Estes, to win a blue ribbon at the Na tional Horse Show in Madison Square Gar

Richard Waddington. Special Cable Despatch to THE SEN

ROUEN, June 26.—Richard Waddington a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor Senator from the Seine-Inferieure Depart ment and President of the Chamber of Commerce of Rouen, died to-day. He had been a member of the Superior Council for the Colonies, of the Consultation Committee for the Railroads and of the FRANK E. CAMPBELL Commission of the International Exposi-

Mrs. Phebe W. Arrowsmith, Mrs. Phebe W. Arrowsmith, widow of Milton Arrowsmith, died yester-day at her home, 170 Clinton street, Brooklyn. She was known for her in-Brooklyn. It will cost the city $45,000 a

DUKE OF SUTHERLAND Brooklyn; Robert Arrowsmith and Dr. Herber Arrowsmith, and one daughter, Miss Edith Arrowsmith, survive her.

HOBART'S ESTATE $1,465,962

Paterson Court Approves Accounting of Holdings.

PATERSON, N. J., June 26 .- The personal estate of the late Garret A. Hobart, Vice-President of the United States in President McKinley's administration, was fixed at $1,465.962.74 in an intermediate accounting presented to the Surrogate's Court to-day by former United States Attorney-General

John W. Griggs.

The holdings of the late Vice-President were: Bonds, $718,863.16; stocks, $493,953.30; mortgages, $127,950; Public Service Corporation certificates, $54,275; bills receivable, $80,000; Hobart mausoleum and plot, $59,628.81; book accounts, $1,800; office furniture, $200; insurance, $1,000; cash, $3,-

The accounting was accepted and the trustees got $4.677.22 in commissions.

H. L. PRATT GETS FIRE BADGE. Johnson Appreciates Good Work of

Standard Oil Fire Tugs. Herbert L. Pratt, vice-president of the Standard Oil Company of New York, was invited to Fire Headquarters yesterday, where Commissioner Johnson gave him a gold badge that will admit him to fire lines. Commissioner said he gave the without stepping on any other man's badge in appreciation of the cooperation property. the department in fighting harbor

Mr. Pratt gave $1,000 toward entertaining the visiting fire chiefs at the convention next September

DENY OHSOL IS RUSSIAN SPY. Berne Committee Says Report Is

Slander of "Black Handred." Russian Socialists in New York have received this cablegram from the Russian Social Democracy committee in Berne, Switzerland:

"Rumor Ohsol being spy is deliberate slander of Black Hundred. "Russian Social Democracy Commit-

"Z Simbowsky, Sec'y."

This message was in response to an inquiry by Johann Ohsol's friends here as to the authenticity of a recent despatch from Riga, Russia, saying that Ohsol was in the employ of the Russian secret police.

WILLS AND APPRAISALS.

WALTER CUTTING, who died in Pittsfield, Mass., left an estate of $220,000 Mary E. Ferris, who died at Brookline, Mass., on June 21, 1911, left $316,000 to her daughter, Mary E. Ferris, and four grand-children. MARY A. DONAGHY, who died April 30 last, left $77,413 to her sisters, Lottie Sherman and Elizabeth Drowns.

CHARLES J. TEARE—Mrs. Annie Teare, mether of Charles J. Teare, one of the two policemen killed in the pistol battle in Mulberry street on May 4, took out letters of administration yesterday on the estate of her son. She said the slain policeman left $3,572.

JOBN C REILLY, who died in Brooklyn on February 5, 1919, left a gross estate of $197,241.16, which was reduced to $49,686.80 by obligations. The estate was left in trust for the widow, Margaret J. Reilly, and four children. Enward Jeans, who died in Brooklyn on May 28 last, left an estate of $16,500 to Mrs. Jessie E. Lamb Boughton, the oldest daughter of my friend Richard Lamb." Two brothers, four sisters and a score of nieces and nechews were not mentioned. FRANK P. ROSSITER of Brooklyn, who died on April 24, left an estate valued at $50,000 in trust for his sister-in-law, Emilie K. Rossiter, and her three daughters.

Blind bowlers' contest, the Lighthouse, 111 East Fifty-ninth street, 8 P. M. wasn't obscene and that the reproduction of the art work didn't come under the postal ban.

Chabas's "September Morn," which shows a maiden wading in a pool and clothed only in diaphanous mist, was highly praised for its beauty when ex-

ATLANTIC CITY, June 26.—The tem-perature at noon here to-day was 70. ASBURY PARK, June 26.—The tem-

Taught School Fifty-five Years,

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., June 28. - With the remarkable record of having taught school for fifty-five consecutive years, forty-two years of this time in the same school house. Wilham H. McElrov of the town of Warwick has resigned. When he commenced teach-

MARRIED.

EOND-ELDREDGE -- On Tuesday. June 24, 1913, at St. Anne's Church. South Lincoln. Mass. by the Rev. Samuel Snelling, assisted by the Rev. John M. C. Wilson. Anna Redman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stuart Eldredge, to Stephen Norman Bond.

LANE-BURGOYNE -On Tuesday, June 17, in New York city, Frances Duncan Bur-goyne to Arthur Willis Lane, Lieutenant Thirteenth United States Infantry. home, Mantia, P. I., after September 1.

DIED.

ALLEN .-- June 24. Winifred J. Allen. aged 48.

Burial chapel of the Stephen Merritt Burial and Cremation Company, Har-lem branch, 2348 Eighth avenue, near 125th street. Saturday. 12:30. RROWSMITH -At her residence, 170 Cun ton street, Brooklyn, on June 26, 1918. Phehe Wood, widow of Milton Arrow-and Ida Wood Platt of Huntington, in her eighty-seventh year. Funeral at Christ Church, Clinton and Harrison streets, Brooklyn, Saturday morning. June 28, at half past 10 o'clock Interment private. It is requested that no flowers be sent.

smith and daughter of the late Gilbert

BROWN .- June 26. Armanella R. Brown. Chapel Stephen Merritt Burial and Cremation Company, Eighth avenue and Nineteenth street. Interment Cambridge

City. Ind. INGERSOLL .- Suddenly, on June 26, 1913. Harriet Porter Ingersoll, wife of Da

153 West Eighty-first street, on Friday, the 27th inst., at 8 P. M. Interment Wenham, Mass.

SCHWALBE.—Aged 67. Catharine C. Chapel Stephen Merritt Burial and Cre-mation Company. Eighth avenue and Nineteenth street. Time later. SEVERANCE -- Louis H. at Cieveland. Ohio at 10:15 P M., Wednesday, June 25.

Puneral Saturday, at 3 P. M., from the residence of Dr. Dudley P. Allen. 8811 Euclid avenue, Cleveland. Eurial pri-

UNDERTAKEES.

FRANK E. CAMPBELL SALE OF THE LOCAL AND MOTOR FUNERALS Also horse Suburban Own equipment. Save allow expense. All

Brooklyn. She was known for her interest in church and charitable work.

Three sons, the Rev. Harold Arrowsmith.